2.4 Player Participation

All players and parents must understand that there are no guarantees on the amount of game time a given player will get. Each team has its distinct make-up, and coaches consider many factors when deciding time on the field e.g. attitude, attendance to training and games. Playing time will be determined by the coaching staff, based on players meeting realistic roles and expectations that have been clearly communicated to them by the coaching staff throughout the season.

BWFC aims to keep a balance between being competitive and developing our players for the future. However, there are distinctions between an expectation of game time for our different teams. Below are the guidelines given to coaches.

2.4.1 SCWFC U13 – U18 and BWFC U12-U18 - We strive to compete.

Winning is not everything and coaches are encouraged to develop players within teams; however, for close games, the coach has the discretion to put the best group forward.

2.4.2 SCWFC SAP U9 – U12 - We play to develop players.

There may be a starting line-up, but players should be rotated on a reasonable basis based on skill performance and team dynamics. Most games, all players should get some game time. If the team makes the final, then the culture of older divisions applies.

2.4.3 BWFC MINIROOS U6 – U12 We play to learn through fun.

The aim of the coach should be to give all players equal time on the field in all games. Several factors will impact this, including injuries, the health of players on the day of each game, and the mathematical logistics of splitting time evenly.

6. Codes of Behaviour

6.1 Coaches

FOOTBALL FEDERATION AUSTRALIA COACHES CODE OF CONDUCT

This code is designed:

To emphasise the elements of enjoyment and satisfaction to junior players and coaches involved in football.

To make adults, including parents and coaches, aware that young players play football to satisfy themselves and not necessarily to satisfy adults or members of their peer group.

To improve the overall health and fitness of Australia's youth by encouraging participation in football and making it attractive, safe, and enjoyable for all to play.

To remind administrators, coaches, referees, and parents that football must be administered, taught, and provided, for the good of those young people who wish to play football, as ultimately, 'It is their game.'

Coach's Code of Ethics

I will respect the rights, dignity, and worth of all players and ensure that everyone is treated equally.

I will ensure that the players are involved in a positive environment and that the game and training is a positive and enjoyable experience.

I will respect all players' individuality and help them reach their full potential.

I will be fair, considerate, and honest with all players.

I will be professional and accept responsibility for my actions and encourage players to demonstrate the same qualities.

I will make a commitment to my team and myself that I will continue to improve my own knowledge of the game through coach education and various training programs.

I will coach my players to play within the rules and in the spirit of the game of football.

I will avoid any physical contact with the players, and should it be required; it would be appropriate to the situation and necessary for the player's skill development.

I will refrain from any form of personal abuse towards my players. Also, be aware of any forms of abuse directed towards my players from other sources training they are in my care.

I will refrain from any form of harassment towards my players.

I will provide a safe environment for training and competition by ensuring the equipment and facilities meet safety standards.

I will show concern and caution towards sick and injured players and allow for further participation in training and competition only when appropriate.

I will not engage in the use of crude, foul, or abusive language that may be determined offensive or engage in any conduct detrimental to the image of the game when on or off the field.

I will refrain from arguing with the referee and/or assistant referees regarding the decisions they make.

I will treat participants, officials, and spectators with courtesy and respect.

I will always encourage my team to play within the laws of the game.

I will not consent to the use of any banned substance or drugs of dependence by my players.

I will act in a responsible manner and accept responsibility for my actions

6.2 Players

FOOTBALL FEDERATION AUSTRALIA CODE OF CONDUCT FOR PLAYERS:

- Play by the rules. It is just as important to understand the spirit of the rules. They are designed to make the game fun to play and fun to watch. By sticking to the rules, you will enjoy the game more;
- Play to win. Winning is the object of playing any game. Never set out to lose. If you do not play to win, you are cheating your opponents, deceiving those who are watching, and also fooling yourself. Never give up against stronger opponents but never relent against weaker ones;
- Play fair. Winning is without value if victory has been achieved unfairly or dishonestly. Playing fair requires courage and character and is more satisfying. Playing fair earns you respect, while cheats are detested;
- Refrain from conduct which may be regarded as sexual harassment towards fellow players and coaches;
- Never argue with an official. If you disagree, have your captain, coach, or manager approach the official during a break or after the competition. Fair play means respect. Referees are there to maintain discipline and fair play;
- Control your temper. Verbal abuse of officials and sledging other players, deliberately distracting or provoking an opponent, are not acceptable or permitted behaviours in any sport;
- Be honest with the coach concerning illness and injury and ability to train and compete to the best of your ability;
- Work equally hard for yourself and your team. Your team's performance will benefit, and so will you. A professional appearance relating to language, manner, temper, and punctuality is to be adopted at all times;
- Be a good sport. Applaud all good plays whether they are made by your team or the opposition;
- Accept defeat with dignity. Nobody wins all the time. Learn to lose graciously. Don't seek excuses for defeat. Genuine reasons will always be self-evident. Congratulate the winners with good grace. Don't blame the referee or anyone else. Good losers earn more respect than bad winners;
- Promote the interests of football; it is the world's greatest game. Think of football's interests before your own. Think about how your actions may affect the image of the game. Talk about the positive things in the game. Encourage other people to watch it or play it fairly. Be an ambassador for the game;
- Treat all participants in your sport as you like to be treated. Do not bully or take unfair advantage of another competitor. Reject corruption, drugs, racism, violence, and other dangers to our sport. Watch out for attempts to tempt you into cheating or using drugs. Drugs have no place in football or in our society. Say no to drugs;

- Help others to resist corrupting pressures. You may hear that team-mates or other people you know are being tempted to cheat in some way. Give them the strength to resist. Remind them of their commitment to their team-mates and to the game itself. Form a block of solidarity, like a solid defence on the field of play;
- Co-operate with your coach, team-mates and opponents. Without them, there would be no competition.
- They have the same rights as you have, including the right to be respected;
- Participate for your own enjoyment and benefit, not just to please parents and coaches;
- Respect the rights, dignity, and worth of all participants regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion;
- Denounce those who attempt to discredit our sport. Don't be ashamed to show up anybody who you are sure is trying to make others cheat. It's better to expose them and have them removed before they can do any damage. It often takes more courage to denounce what is wrong, than to go along with a dishonest plan;
- Honour those who defend football's good reputation. The good name of football has survived because the vast majority of people who love the game are honest and fair. Sometimes somebody does something exceptional that deserves our special recognition. They should be honoured and their fine example made public. This encourages others to act in the same way.

6.3 Spectators & Parents

Parents are NOT permitted to give instructions to any player while in the care of the coach or manager.

It is not acceptable for a parent to provide coaching instructions to their children before, during, or after games or training. This information may conflict with the coaches' instructions.

The Club encourages parents to provide positive support to the team.

'Something is not right if you find yourself Getting angry Shouting at the referee Grouping together with other parents getting angry, making lots of sarcastic comments aimed at the opposition parents, coach, or players. If you find yourself doing any of these things, then pull your head in. Believe it or not, your children don't like seeing their dad [or mum] in public getting angry.' - John Dybvig, Sunday Star Times
